Let's Pause, Reflect, and Celebrate

February is Black History Month...and the Community Foundation of Middlesex County salutes our friends and neighbors, the Petry and James families, for their extraordinary accomplishments which humble and inspire us. Just take a look.

The Community Foundation of Middlesex County is honored to work with Elisabeth Petry Riley and her entire family as the fiscal sponsor of the documentary on not only their unique story, but also ours.

The James Children

Let's honor the history and accomplishments of extraordinary people...right in our backyard.

Help us get this film made!
