

THREE THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

Sharing Information and Caring for our Community

Governor Lamont Announces Connecticut Businesses and Nonprofit Organizations Approved to Receive Disaster Assistance Due to COVID-19

Governor Ned Lamont today announced that small businesses and nonprofit organizations in Connecticut that have been negatively impacted by the global COVID-19 outbreak are now eligible for disaster relief loans of up to $2 million from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA).

Click here for full article

FREE Webinar: Fundraising in the Time of Coronavirus: How to Manage and Modify Your Fundraising

Jeff Brooks has worked through every fundraising crisis of the last 30 years. This webinar will help you separate the things you can't control in this crisis from the things you can control. Knowing the difference - and acting on it -- can help your organization.

CharityHowTo
Where Nonprofits Learn

Live Nonprofit Training Webinars
Presented by The Leading Nonprofit Topic Experts

Learn More - Register

Harvest Development Group
Consulting Services for Nonprofits | Do Good. Better.

A Special "Caring" Networking Opportunity from our friends at Harvest Development Group (HDG)

Starting Friday, March 20th at Noon (EST)

One of the first things HDG will be doing is Livestreaming on their Facebook Page every weekday at Noon for 30 minutes, to share information together that can help you work more effectively through this new reality. HDG will have guest speakers, they will share their insights, research others, and ask for viewers to share as well.

Be sure to like and follow their page to be alerted to the daily agenda.

Helping you navigate rough waters, with assurance and informational support - this is the thing that means the most to us all and we are proud to be a part of your mission.

Our belief is the nonprofit industry is a strong and powerful force that has proven to weather many storms. We will survive this one too, if we all work together.

