SHARE:

Join Our Email List

View as Webpage

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION of Middlesex County

Philanthropy • Leadership • Legacy

What's happening in March (and April, too)?

Terrific partnerships with remarkable women right here in Middlesex County.

Tune in, sign up, and have fun as we celebrate
Great Women Doing Great Things in Middlesex County!

Are you a Meaningful Mondays follower?

We're talking with incredible women in March ...
women who show up and share their talents with our community.

Airing now - Episode 5 is a conversation with Laura Colebank, discussing her work in the community and the connections she has made during her tenure on the the CFMC Board of Directors.

Airing Monday, March 25 - we're joined by Representative Kai Belton to discuss her career in human services and her role representing Middletown. She shares her idea behind the Women's HerStory Brunch, too! (see the announcement below!)

Spotify | Listen on our Website | iHeart Radio

We have the best partners in our community. Check out these upcoming events, hosted by remarkable women!

Guess Who's Coming To Essex?

The RiverLane is helping women look and feel their best while helping their community thrive.

The Sari A. Rosenbaum Fund for Women & Girls is honored to have been chosen by The RiverLane as the beneficiary of their spring event.

Reserve your tickets at theriverlane.com/products/style-event-with-clinton-kelly/na

Questions? contact events@theriverlane.com

20% of event proceeds will support the Sari A. Rosenbaum Fund for Women & Girls at the Community Foundation of Middlesex County.

Representative Kai Belton, Lt. Governor Susan Bysiewicz, and an astounding panel of remarkable community and government women invite you to join them for brunch ...

Reserve Your Seat Here

A Standing Room Only Crowd Joined the Town of Chester to honor a trailblazer...

It may have been a snowy day in February, but that didn't keep a crowd of well-wishers and fans from the local unveiling of the USPS Forever Stamp honoring Constance Baker Motley.

CFMC was honored to partner with the Chester Historical Society and Chester Land Trust to celebrate the life of a woman who has led the way with many "firsts."

Have you gotten your stamps yet?

Read more about this great community celebration (and see photos of the day) HERE.

Have you visited your local library? Check in to learn about some upcoming fun to help our feathered friends!

Nesting Balls Help Build Homes

What's a nesting ball? Visit your local library to find out ... the CFMC Mary Janvrin and Natalie Janvrin Wiggins Fund for Birds, Other Animals, and Nature has teamed up with A Pocket Full of Posies to help our feathered friends and celebrate spring with our libraries.

Our local libraries have received a batch of nesting balls and a signed copy of local author Leslie Bulion's wonderful book of bird poetry, Superlative Birds, to welcome back our feathered friends.

Stay tuned for more updates!

And one last note ... spend some time with more Good People Doing Great Things in Middlesex County. Catch up with interesting conversations in our series ...

Episode 1: Ivoryton Village Alliance
Episode 2: Clio Coles, former CFMC Board of Directors member
Episode 3: Brett Director, CFMC Board of Directors member
Episode 4: Todd Pozefsky, CFMC Board of Directors member

New episodes air the second and fourth Monday of every month - stay tuned for conversations with interesting people and outstanding nonprofits.
For our "podcaster" pals, subscribe to our Spotify channel ... and share with your friends! (Thank you - we appreciate you helping to build our following.)
Not a podcast pal? Not to worry! All our conversations are available on the Videos page on our website.

Choose your preference below ...

Spotify | Listen onour Website | iHeart Radio

Community Foundation of Middlesex County | 49 Main Street, Middletown, CT 06457

Unsubscribe info@middlesexcountycf.org

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by info@middlesexcountycf.org powered by

Try email marketing for free today!